ATHENA SEEKING NEW WATER

CITY WILL INSTALL NEW AND LARGER SYSTEM.

Present Supply Will Soon Be Inadequate to the Growing Town—Well Will Be Dug and a Reservoir Constructed—Old Pipe Line Can Be Used—Present System Cost $12,000 This Being the City's Only Debt—New System Can Be Installed for $10,000.

Athens, Nov. 16.—Having outgrown her present water system Athens is now prospecting for a new and larger system to meet the needs of the city.

At present the water supply is derived from a pumping station, a well being used as the source of the supply. The system cost the city $12,000, this being the only bonded indebtedness of the city at this time.

A test well is being dug on the Stewart farm, five miles from the city where there are indications of a large water supply, and where a well will be sunk of sufficient depth to make sure that it is a permanent supply. If a sufficient supply is found in this well, a reservoir will be built near the city, and enough higher to give sufficient pressure, and an entirely new and enlarged system will be installed.

It is estimated that the new supply can be developed and the system installed at a cost of $10,000 and as most of the present pipe line can be used the work will be reduced to a minimum.

The city council ordered preliminary surveys of the water sources made some time ago, and the well is now down to a depth of five feet, where a solid bedrock has been encountered.

Work on the well will be rushed, however, until it is demonstrated whether it will furnish a sufficient supply for the city.

Want Ohio River Improved.

Huntington, W. Va., Nov. 16.—The tenth annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association opened here today. Many delegates are in attendance from points in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois. President John L. Vance of Cincinnati, called the gathering to order and explained the purposes and hopes of the association. The principal matter to be urged on congress by the Huntington convention is the completion of the survey of the Ohio river from Cincinnati to Cairo. The construction of a lock and dam near Henderson, Ky.,

and the raising of the dam at Louisville will be urged.

It Is Wonderful

COMPETITORS ALL OUT-DISTANCED.

The awarding of the only prize for Blankets, Indian Robes, Indian Shawls and Indian Couch Covers at St. Louis to the Pendleton Woolen Mills adds but very little to the fame of this celebrated line of goods, but the circumstances surrounding the goods sent to the Fair show that this line really merits all the honor as this was not a prepared exhibit.

It is usual for manufacturers to prepare something especially fine for exhibition purposes, but these goods were packed on a "hurry-up" order direct from the shelves of the stock room and are the exact qualities that are being shipped all over the country to customers.

Christmas trade has commenced to come in already, showing that there is going to be greater interest all over the country in these Robes, Etc., for holiday presents.

Pendleton people should bear this in mind. Nothing pleases friends in the East more than one of these robes. They not only advertise the City of Pendleton, but are the most appropriate souvenir of the Great West now obtainable.

THE SMOKING JACKETS bid fair to soon oust the robes in popularity, as orders are coming in from nearly all the points where samples have been shown.

They are without doubt the swiftest thing and the latest novelty in Smoking Jackets. By the way,

HAVE YOU SEEN THE SMOKING JACKETS?

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR HORSES

Wanted—One hundred head of unbroken horses. I am located for the winter at the Dutch Henry feed yard, corner of Alta and Littleth streets, where I conduct a first-class training and sale stable. If you want to buy a horse I will take your order and select the best horse for you, or if you have a horse to sell I am well acquainted with the best buyers. I am well equipped to break and handle any horse from the finest blooded stock to the wildest and most desperate broncho. There is no horse but can be broke and be made to drive or work nicely if he be handled correctly. I have broke one hundred and twenty-three head in Pendleton, some of which had become desperadoes. I guarantee satisfaction in every case.
